

CONFESSION - FAITH

My faith is the substance of things I hope for, the evidence of things I do not see. By faith I understand that the worlds were framed by the Word of God so that what I see was not made out of things which are visible. My faith pleases God. I believe that He exist and that He is my rewarder for I earnestly and diligently seek Him,

I trust in the Lord with my whole heart and I lean not to my own understanding. In all my ways I acknowledge Him and He directs my paths. I walk by faith and not by sight or appearance, because I know that things that are seen are temporary and that things that are unseen are eternal.

When I walk by faith I do not sin. Being empowered by faith, I am fully persuaded that what God promises, He will do. God has given to me the measure of faith. Because I am born of God, I have overcome the world by my faith.

My faith comes and is awakened by hearing and hearing by the Word of God. The Word of God profits me because I mix it with faith. I build myself up in my most holy faith by praying in the Holy Spirit. I have faith and doubt not, therefore, all things are possible to me. My faith doesn't waver. I set my eyes on Jesus the author and finisher of my faith.

Whatever I ask for in prayer, having faith and really believing, I will receive. Because I cast my care on Him, I stand firm in faith against the wiles of the devil. I am strong in the Lord and in the power of His might. My faith works by love. My heart is being purified, sanctified and justified by faith, and I have peace with God through the Lord Jesus Christ. My faith has made me whole.
