

CONFESSION - WIFE

Being confident that He who began a good work in me will continue until the day of Jesus Christ, I confess that;

I am a capable intelligent and virtuous women, far more precious than jewels. I rise early and get spiritual food for my household. I seek first God's kingdom and all good things are added to me. I reverently and worshipfully fear the Lord, I give of the fruit of my hands and my works praise me. I am industrious. With my savings I plant fruitful vines. Strength and dignity are my clothing and my position is strong and secure. I rejoice over the future knowing that my family and I are ready for it.

I open my mouth with skillful and godly wisdom, and in my tongue is the law of kindness, and I give counsel and instruction. The bread of idleness, gossip, discontent, and self-pity I do not eat.

I am worthy of respect and serious, not a gossip, but temperate and self-controlled, thoroughly trustworthy in all things. I pursue righteousness, godliness, faith, love, patience, and gentleness of heart, and the joy of the Lord is my strength.

I am submissive and adapt myself to my own husband as a service to the Lord. He is the head of me as Christ is the head of the church. I respect and reverence my husband. I notice, regard, honour, prefer, love, and admire him exceedingly. The heart of my husband trusts in me confidently and relies on and believes in me safely. I comfort and encourage and do him only good as long as there is life in me. I walk in love with my husband, esteeming and delighting in him. My husband praises me above all women.

Philippians 1:6

Proverbs 31:10-31

Matthew 6:33

1 Timothy 3:11, 6:11

Nehemiah 8:10

Ephesians 5:2, 22-23, 33