

CONFESSION - YOUTH

That the sharing of my faith may become effective but the acknowledgement of every good thing which is in Christ Jesus, I confess that:

I seek first the kingdom of God and His righteousness and receive good gifts from Him. I am a good disciple taught of the Lord, and great is my peace. I love the Lord with all my heart, and with all my soul, and with all my might. Because I am careful to do all that is in God's word I am prosperous. I deal wisely and I have good success, and walk in divine health. And because I have been trained in the I should go I will not depart from it.

My parents love and discipline me. And I obey my parents in the Lord for this is just and right. I honour, esteem and value them as precious; and all is well with me and I will live long on the earth. My parents do not irritate me, but rather they bring me up tenderly with true Christian training and advice. I give my parents rest and bring delight to them.

I prosper and am in health even as my soul prospers. God supplies all my needs. I have the wisdom of the Lord. I abound in love towards others. The fruit of the Spirit; love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness, and self-control shine out from my life. I do all things without grumbling and finding fault in others, and without complaining. I run from youthful lusts and pursue righteousness, faith, love, and peace.
